28 Day Shuffle Enjoined in Orange County

A Costa Mesa ordinance prohibits tenants from staying longer than 30 days in a motel, thus forcing them each month to move from the only affordable housing in the city

A Costa Mesa ordinance prohibits tenants from staying longer than 30 days in a motel, thus forcing them each month to move from the only affordable housing in the city. Today an Orange County Superior Court judge issued a preliminary injunction prohibiting enforcement of the ordinance against current residents until the City develops a relocation plan to assist those tenants who are being displaced.
