Western Center's 2017 Sponsored Legislation May 26, 2017

Today was the last day for bills to be passed out of the Appropriations Committee and June 2 is the last day for bills to be passed out of the house of origin. Following is a list of bills to help secure housing, healthcare and a strong safety net for low-income Californians that are sponsored or co-sponsored by Western Center on Law & Poverty during the 2017 legislative session.

Housing

AB 72 (Santiago and Chiu) would appropriate on-time funds to the Office of the Attorney General to assist in the enforcement of state housing laws, such as Housing Element Law, the Housing Accountability Act, the Least Coast Zoning Law, the No Net Loss Zoning Law, Density Bonus Law, and others. Co-sponsored by Western Center, the California Rural Legal Assistance Foundation, and the California Housing Consortium.

Location: Assembly Floor

AB 291 (Chiu) would enact significant protections for immigrant tenants, including prohibiting landlords from threatening to call immigration authorities and codifying an affirmative defense to evictions based on immigration status. Co-sponsored by Western Center and California Rural Legal Assistance Foundation.

Location: Senate Rules

AB 686 (Santiago) would establish an obligation for California state, regional, and local governments to affirmatively further fair housing in their decisions related to housing and community development. The obligation would be modeled on, and enhance, the obligation found in the Fair Housing Act of 1968, which is under attack at the federal level. Co-sponsored by Western Center, National Housing Law Project, and Public Advocates.

Location: Assembly Floor

AB 1397 (Low) would strengthen state Housing Element Law by limiting the reliance of local governments in meeting their RHNA obligations on sites that do not have a realistic capacity for housing development, including sites that are too small or too large, sites that have been recycled across multiple Housing Elements without ever developing as housing, and sites not served by water and wastewater. Co-sponsored by Western Center, the California Rural Legal Assistance Foundation, and Public Advocates.

Location: Assembly Floor

AB 1505 (Bloom, Chiu, and Gloria) would overturn the Palmer decision and restore the ability of local governments to fully implement local inclusionary policies. Co-sponsored with the California Rural Legal Assistance Foundation, the California Housing Consortium, Housing California, and the Non-Profit Housing Association of Northern California.

Location: Senate Transportation and Housing

AB 1521 (Bloom and Chiu) would strengthen the state's Affordable Housing Preservation Law by requiring that rental housing with expiring federal and/or state subsidies and/or affordability protections be offered for sale first to qualified preservation purchasers at market value, requiring the state to monitor compliance, and providing affected tenants with the right to enforce the Preservation Law. Co-sponsored by Western Center, the California Coalition for Rural Housing, the California Housing Partnership, and the California Rural Legal Assistance Foundation.

Location: Assembly Floor

SB 166 (Skinner) would amend the existing No Net Loss Zoning Law to better ensure that when sites identified for housing in a jurisdiction's housing element develop with fewer units than were anticipated or at a higher income level, or with no housing at all, the jurisdiction continues to maintain an ongoing supply of sites available to meet the unmet need for housing for all income levels. Co-sponsored by Western Center, the California Rural Legal Assistance Foundation, and Public Advocates.

Location: Senate Floor

Health

SB 575 (Leyva) would provide low-income Californians with free access to their medical records when applying for certain public benefit programs.

Location: Assembly Desk

CalFresh, Emergency Food, Food System and School Meal Legislation

SB 250 (Hertzberg) would establish state standards to prevent harmful treatment to school children when their families are unable to pay an unpaid debt to the school food services providers. Co-Sponsored by Western Center, the Children's Defense Fund, MAZON: A Jewish Response to Hunger, the Food Research and Action Center and Service Employees International Union (SIEU-California).

Location: Senate Floor

SB 278 (Wiener) would allow counties to establish a cost-effective threshold for their collection of CalFresh overissuances when they were not caused by a client's intentional error or fraud and would require counties to report when mass overissuances were made as a result of county systems failure or negligence. Co-sponsored by Western Center and the Coalition of California Welfare Rights Organizations.

Location: Senate Floor

SB 282 (Wiener) would codify the CalFresh Restaurant Meal Program (RMP) for elderly, disabled or homeless recipients in state law. It would also require the Department of Social Services to seek approval for a CalFresh Employment & Training subsidized job program. Co-sponsored by Western Center on Law and Poverty, the County Welfare Department Association and the Coalition of Welfare Rights Organizations.

Location: Senate Floor
